Indianhead Community Action Agency receives funding through the Bob Woodruff Foundation and Craig Newmark Philanthropies to support area veterans.

Ladysmith, WI — Indianhead Community Action Agency, Inc. (ICAA) is honored to be recognized alongside Nation’s Finest and grateful to the Bob Woodruff Foundation and Craig Newmark Philanthropies for their continued support. The funding received will make a real difference for veterans in Wisconsin who are facing housing challenges, helping ICAA to provide emergency aid and connect veterans with long-term resources.

ICAA’s CEO, Jennifer Shearer said, “We believe no veteran should face housing insecurity alone. This funding allows us to step in quickly with emergency support while also connecting veterans to the long-term resources they need to thrive.” Grant funds will be used to support veterans in ICAA’s core service area which includes Burnett, Clark, Rusk, Sawyer, Taylor, and Washburn Counties, as well as veterans throughout ICAA’s expanded SSVF service area which includes Ashland, Bayfield, Douglas, Florence, Forest, Iron, Langlade, Marinette, Menomonie, Oconto, Oneida, Price, and Vilas Counties.
